ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Volume 32 of the Society's record series is the first to take the form of a Miscellany. The Hotot estate records comprise BL Add. MS 54228, reproduced by permission of the British Library Board, and extracts from Bodleian Library MS top. Northants c. 19, reproduced by permission of the Bodleian Library, Oxford. Both the Daventry Tithing Book and the Militia Lists are in the Northamptonshire Record Office, and are reproduced by permission of the Chief Archivist, Mr Patrick King. Each of the editors wishes to thank Mr King and the staff of the Record Office for their assistance.

The Society and myself must thank the British Academy for a generous grant from its Small Grants Research Fund in the Humanities towards my research expenses in pursuing the Hotots. We must also thank Dr Marjorie Chibnall for reading my text, and for making many valuable suggestions for its improvement. Dr Sandra Raban, Mr James Campbell, Mr David Hall and Dr David Crook were kind enough to help with individual queries.

Mr Greenall wishes to thank the following for advice, help and information: his colleague, Mr A. E. Brown; the Librarian and Deputy Archivist at Christ Church, Oxford; the Rev K. A. Ward, formerly rector of Daventry; and the County Archivists and their staffs at Derby and Shrewsbury.

Mr Hatley and Mr Statham wish to thank Mrs Jenny King for making the index of names to the Militia Lists, Mrs Jacqueline Minchinton for reading the section in the introduction relating to the family and associates of John Clare, and Dr Diana Sutherland for information about the geology of the Peterborough district.
